

DENTAL HEALTH ASSOCIATES OF MADISON, LTD.
NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.
THE PRIVACY OF YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION IS IMPORTANT TO US.

USE AND DISCLOSURE OF HEALTH INFORMATION

Dental Health Associates of Madison, Ltd. (“DHA”) may use your health information, that is, information that constitutes Protected Health Information (“PHI”) as defined in the Privacy Rule of the Administrative Simplification provisions of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, for purposes of providing you treatment, obtaining payment for your care and conducting health care operations. DHA has established a policy to guard against unnecessary disclosure of your health information.

THE FOLLOWING IS A SUMMARY OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH AND PURPOSES FOR WHICH YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED

To Provide Treatment. DHA may use your health information to provide care to you and disclose your health information to others who provide care to you. For example, dentists and/or physicians involved in your care will need information about your symptoms in order to prescribe appropriate medications. DHA also may disclose your health care information to individuals outside of DHA involved in your care including family members, pharmacists, suppliers of medical and dental equipment or other health care professionals. Also, for example, your health information may be sent to a specialist for continuation of your dental treatment.

To Obtain Payment. DHA may include your health information in invoices to collect payment from third parties for the care you may receive from DHA. For example, DHA may be required by your health insurer to provide information regarding your health care status so that the insurer will reimburse you or DHA. DHA also may need to obtain prior approval from your insurer and may need to explain to the insurer your need for health care and the services that will be provided to you. Also, for example DHA may have to send your health information to collection agencies for payment of balances due DHA.

To Conduct Health Care Operations. DHA may use and disclose health information for its own operations in order to facilitate the function of DHA and as necessary to provide quality care to all of DHA's patients. Health care operations include activities such as quality assessment and improvement activities, reviewing the competence or qualifications of health care professionals, evaluating practitioner and provider performance, conducting training programs, accreditation, and certification, licensing or credentialing activities. DHA may disclose your health information to another health care provider or organization that is subject to the federal privacy rules and that has a relationship with you to support some of their health care operations. DHA may disclose your information to help these organizations conduct quality assessment and improvement activities, review competence or qualifications of health care professionals, or detect or prevent health care fraud and abuse.

DHA may contact health care providers and patients with information about treatment alternatives and other related functions that do not include treatment. DHA may disclose your health information during training of non-health care professionals and training programs including those in which students, trainees or practitioners in health care learn under supervision.

DHA may disclose your health information during business management, planning, analyses formulary development, certain marketing activities, and general administrative activities. For example, DHA may use your health information to evaluate its staff performance, and/or combine your health information with other DHA patients in evaluating how to more effectively serve all of DHA's patients, and/or disclose your health information to DHA staff and contracted personnel for training purposes. Also, for example, DHA may use your general demographic patient information in patient surveys, patient questionnaires, pamphlets, brochures and/or media ads, to market dental services and treatments.

DENTAL HEALTH ASSOCIATES OF MADISON, LTD. NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

For example, an appointment reminder may be in the form of voicemail messages, postcards, letters, answering machines, and/or a person answering your telephone.

To Your Family and Friends. DHA must disclose your health information to you, as described in the Patient Rights section of this Notice. DHA may disclose your health information to a family member, friend, or another person to the extent necessary to help with your health care or with payment of your health care, but only if you agree that DHA may do so.

To Persons Involved in Your Health Care. DHA may use or disclose your health information to notify, or assist in the notification of a family member, your personal representative or another person responsible for your care, of your location, your general condition, or death. If you are present, then prior to use or disclosure of your health information, DHA will provide you with an opportunity to object to our use or disclosure. If you are not present, or in the event of your incapacity or an emergency, we will disclose health information based on a determination using our professional judgment, disclosing on health information that is directly relevant to the person's involvement in your health care. For example, DHA will use their professional judgment and their experience with common practice to make reasonable assumption of your best interest in allowing a person to pick up filled prescriptions, medical supplies, x-rays, or other similar forms of health information.

For Treatment Alternatives. DHA may use and disclose your health information to tell you about or recommend possible treatment options or alternatives that may be of interest to you.

When Legally Required. DHA will disclose your health information when it is required to do so by any Federal, State or local law.

For The Public Benefit. DHA may use or disclose your health information as authorized by law for the following purposes deemed to be in the public interest or benefit: As required by law; For public health activities, including disease and vital statistic reporting, child abuse reporting, FDA oversight, and to employers regarding work-related illness or injury; To report adult abuse, neglect, or domestic violence; To health oversight agencies; In response to court and administrative orders and other lawful processes; To law enforcement officials pursuant to subpoenas and other lawful processes, concerning crime victims, suspicious deaths, crimes on DHA premises, reporting crimes in emergencies, and for purposes of identifying or locating a suspect or other person; To coroners, medical examiners, and funeral directors; To organ procurement organizations; To avert a serious threat to health or safety; In connection with certain research activities; To the military and to federal officials for lawful intelligence, counterintelligence, and national security activities; To correctional institutions regarding inmates; and as authorized by state worker's compensation laws.

AUTHORIZATION TO USE OR DISCLOSE HEALTH INFORMATION

Other than is stated above, DHA will not disclose your health information other than with your written authorization. If you or your representative authorizes DHA to use or disclose your health information, you may revoke authorization in writing at any time. Your revocation will not affect any uses or disclosures permitted by your authorization while it was in effect.
